

band, as the Moone hath no light, but it is the Sunnes, Pea and her Phœbe bozroweth sometime her owne proper light from Phœbus.

SECT. IX.

That which the Wife hath is the Husbands.

FO thus it is, If before Marriage the Woman were possessed of Hoyses, Deate, Sheepe, Cozne, Wool, Honey, Plate and Jewels, all manner of moueable substance is presently by coniunction the husbands, to sell, keepe or bequeath if he die: And though he bequeath them not, yet are they the Husbands Executors and not the wiues which brought them to her Husband.

SECT. X.

The Husbands interest in Chastels reall.

A Terme or Lease for yeares, made to the wife before or after Couerture hath somewhat peculiar in it selfe: for if Tenant iure vxoris of a terme grant it or surrender it and die, the Wife is without remedy; but if hee continue possession vntill his death, it shall remaine to the Wife, Parkins 107.

If Tenant iure vxoris, for twenty yeares lease the Land to a stranger for ten yeares rendering rent, with re-entry for