

Sept. 19 1674

On 14th of R. Lattimer son to J. Lattimer<sup>8</sup> was made a gentleman of his mother's bed chamber

The Queen is removing from Whitehall to Hampton Court where she will spend some time for her diversion.

From Linn we hear that the English ships are for the most part returned home well freighted wth fish

On 15th part of June abt 30 saile of ships wh<sup>ch</sup> were judged to be Ruyter's & his Lyons son from ~~the~~ West Indies

On 14th in 7th morning the Duke of Marl went from Rye for France in one of his private yachts

On 16th of Wind presently fair, neare 30 saile of English merchant put ward bound for saile from ~~of~~ Dunmore for Mullaya Cadix &c: & ~~of~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~same~~ ~~time~~ ~~by~~ ~~a~~ ~~Dutch~~ ~~Ship~~ ~~was~~ sent into ~~of~~ ~~Dunmore~~ by a french privateer.

Mr Secretary Coventry being now absent secretary of state is now removed to the office wh<sup>ch</sup> was lately the Duke of Orleans wh<sup>ch</sup> she acts in of same Capacity the Duke did, Mr Joseph Williamson being placed in that office wh<sup>ch</sup> was heretofore Coventry's.

Williamson, Sir Joseph, 1633-1701.

Newsletters. F1673/4-1715.

L.c.83