

Lind long (thou foasting roome) and out thou burne againe, thy Architect to a shibb brand, Whome not fine fribs, nor a parlant name write all Remembrance make an honest man.

To Inigo Marques would bee
 A Corrollarie.

But tunc thou hearst the mightie King of spaine
 Loath made his Inigo Marques, wouldst thou
 Our Charles should make thee King, 'twouldst thou
 All King to doe the selfe same deed with some,
 Beside his man may meritt, and bee
 A noble honest soule; what hat that to thee.
 Loo may haue skill, and iudgment to designe
 Citties & Temples, thou a cause for wyme,
 Or Ale; Loo built A Pallace, thou a shoppe with flying windowes, and false light a toppe.
 Loo drawes a Forum with quadriall streete.
 Thou paint a lane with stumbe with selfe myneste.

Loo

Loo some Collopus to bestride the seas from the faine villans of old Hercules.
 Thy Saucy Gyant at some thammell ayndes
 On Dowgate towne out falling into Thames
 And straddling shrowd the Boyes browne papstrot yearly there sett out to saile downe the street.
 your worte thus differing; brot sett the shole content that to be Lane ridg Earle a while (An each of shoue) for all thy worte no soe.
 But when thou turnst a roall Inigo on some of hant the least inbroutnt with
 We oole haue thee shold the Marguis of Humedritth.

To A Friend.
 An Epigram on Inigo
 Jones.

Sr Inigo doth feare it (as I heare
 And Labour to some worthy, of that feare)

That