- What are your principal academic interests? (100 words max.)
- What are your main extracurricular interests and hobbies? (100 words max.)
- What experience have you had with Shakespeare? Please note that previous experience with Shakespeare is not a prerequisite. (200 words max.)
- What questions do you have about Shakespeare and/or the Folger Library? What are you most curious about? (200 words max.)
- What have you read for pleasure—i.e., not for school—recently? (200 words max.)
• Have you had experience with live theater of any kind? If so, please describe. Have you seen shows? Performed or directed? Please note that this kind of experience is not required. (200 words max.)

• Have you ever been part of a program with students from a variety of schools? If so, name the program and tell us about the experience. (200 words max.)

• Please list all of your anticipated commitments and activities for the 2016-17 school year. This includes but is not limited to demanding courses like AP or IB, college applications, sports, clubs, trips, jobs, internships, weekly meetings, etc. This information helps us get a sense of your schedule (no max.)

• Please write an essay of approximately 500 words explaining why you want to participate in the Lily McKee High School Fellows Program. Be sure to read the program description carefully and plan your essay before starting to write. Do not simply tell us that the program sounds interesting; let us know why it is interesting to you. We are looking for your individual voice. (around 500 words)

• McKee Fellows are expected to make this program a serious priority. We look for students who are committed to attending every session, giving the work their best efforts, supporting and collaborating with their classmates, and really diving into this experience. The culture of the program is joyful and warm, yet rigorous. With this in mind, should we know anything else about you? (200 words max.)
