Please be sure that the applicant you are recommending has a copy of the program description.

1. How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?

2. Please write a brief evaluation of the applicant’s academic and personal qualities. We are particularly interested in knowing about the student’s motivation, intellectual curiosity, skill in writing, the enthusiasm she or he has about participating in this program, and, most importantly, the likelihood that this student will work well with a group of students from a wide variety of schools. Attach an extra sheet if necessary.

3. For a seminar to be successful, all participants must contribute. How frequently and how well does this student participate in class discussions?

4. Please describe this student’s exposure to and interest in poetry or creative writing of any kind.

5. The group is limited, and everyone accepted for this seminar must attend all lectures conscientiously. How dependable is this student? Do you see any problems which might prevent him or her from faithfully attending all sessions?

6. Is there anything else you would like to tell us about this student?
