You may answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper, but be sure to answer all of the questions and number them.

1. What are your principal academic interests?

2. What are your principal extracurricular / non-academic interests?

3. What exposure have you had to poetry of any kind? (What poems have you heard or read? Have you done any writing yourself?) Note: no prior experience with poetry is required.

4. What have you read for pleasure—i.e., not for school—recently?

5. Please name one teacher who will be writing a recommendation for you. If he or she does not work at your current school, please also give a current address and phone number. If you like, you may ask a second teacher to write a recommendation for you.

6. If you are participating in this program, will your school give you credit for independent study, or partial credit for an English course?

7. Have you ever been a part of a program that included students from a variety of schools? If so, name the program and explain a little about it.

8. On a separate piece of paper, please write a paragraph or two explaining why you want to participate in the “Shakespeare’s Sisters” seminar. It should be typed, if possible, and double-spaced.

9. Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?
